

DAY'S DOINGS OF SOUTH SCRANTON

SOME CHANGES IN FIRE DEPARTMENT CIRCLES.

Century Hose Company is About to Move into New Quarters and the Neptunes Are Again in Service, the Greater Part of the Repairs on Their Building Having Been Completed—Reception of the Blessed Virgin's Sodality of St. Mary's Church.

The present week will work changes particularly in fire department circles, on this side. After a residence of eleven years in one building, the Century hose company will remove to less commodious but nevertheless more substantial quarters. A special meeting of the company was held yesterday afternoon for the purpose of deciding where the company will meet. It was stated in the local columns of Friday's issue of The Tribune that Hartman's barn will be used for the horses and apparatus of the company. It was decided at the session yesterday to rent the store room of the new Hartman building, which is in front of the barn where the horses and wagon will be. The carpets, parlor suite and furniture of the meeting rooms of the company will be removed today and Friday next the horses, indicator and wagon will occupy their new quarters. The Neptune Engine company, after an absence of nine weeks, returned to its partially remodeled building Saturday and is again in active service. It was stated to The Tribune correspondent last night that work will be commenced today on the remaining improvements to be made on the engine house. The improvements yet to be made are the placing of a sliding pole, new bunk rooms for the two permanent men, winding stairs, painting of the interior and exterior of the building, and minor details. The new team for the hose wagon received Thursday appears to meet every requirement and will be reported as being entirely satisfactory.

ANNUAL RECEPTION.

The annual reception of the Blessed Virgin sodality of St. Mary's church congregation was held in the church on River street, last night. The large edifice was thronged by the members of the sodality and the congregation. Rev. Peter Christ, rector of St. Mary's, preached the sermon of the occasion, which was a scholarly and brilliant effort.

Rev. Father Fricker, of West Scranton, and Father Stopper, of this side, assisted at the ceremonies. Thirty-seven young women and thirty young men were received into membership.

NUBS OF NEWS.

The funeral of Emma, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz Hager, of Cedar avenue, took place yesterday afternoon. Rev. William Schmidt, pastor of the Church of Peace, officiated at the services held at the Pittston avenue cemetery.

Bounteous Bargain-Giving in Silks and Black Dress Goods

It is but seldom that bargain giving on such broad-gauged principles as we offer today comes to the women of Scranton in the way of Black and Colored Silks and Black Dress Goods. There's a reason for this. Such goods are not of the general bargain counter order at the Globe Warehouse. In fact, we carry nothing in stock in these departments but the best staple weaves and seasonable novelties expressly designed for middle and high-class buyers. Consequently, no matter how low the price may be, the materials, shadings and styles are the very best the market of today has to offer, while the wealth of choice afforded in our limitless stocks such a special sale as the present a bargain opportunity of such surpassing excellence that shrewd buyers of limited means who feel it their duty to be in keeping with the times in the matter of dress, cannot afford to miss it.

EVENTS OF DAY IN WEST SCRANTON

SOME FEATURES OF OCTOBER IN THIS PART OF CITY.

Death Rate Was Low and There Was a Small Number of Arrests—Funeral of the Late Edwin Reese at the First Welsh Baptist Church. Attended by a Large Number of Persons—Remains of David Kann Interred—Reckless Driving Damages a Carriage.

October, the month of the "brown ale" is within one day of its close for this year. It has been a month replete with many incidents out of the ordinary, even here in our midst. In one respect it has been a unique month. During the course of the preceding thirty days the West Scranton police detail have had a very quiet month so far as arrests or other trouble goes. In fact no other month in this year shows such a clean record on the docket in the police court, though none have been very bad. Alderman John, who was police magistrate for the month, does not recall a quieter month throughout in years during his experience in police matters. There have been but twelve arrests, eight men, three women and one boy, really all for ordinary reasons. Three men were committed in default of fine, one discharged with a reprimand and the rest fined.

Two of the women were fined, the other was discharged with a reprimand. The boy was discharged with a reprimand, the prosecutor not desiring to press the charge. The total amount realized in fines for the month was thirty dollars. About two weeks ago twelve boys were arrested by the police, all charged with malicious mischief. They were given a hearing together and discharged after a lecture from Alderman John. The lesson proved efficacious among the lads of the community in which the boys arrested reside.

The aldermen, without any exception on this side, have had a very scant number of "criminal cases" to transact. What few cases they had were very trivial and were quickly disposed of in the aldermanic courts. That a community of over 30,000 inhabitants should enjoy one whole month so free from court business is an indication of that community's general morals.

Then, too, the sick and death rate has been very low during the month. Most of the recorded mortality arose from infantile or old age causes. Two instances of suicide are recorded. Little if any contagious disease has been found despite the change of weather. In connection with the death record it might be mentioned that several of our oldest residents have been called to the great beyond during the month.

Thus, in a casual glance over two fields, which are always good sources of gauging a community from month to month, we find that physically and morally West Scranton is a good place to reside in.

TWO ANNIVERSARIES. Mr. and Mrs. Evan Jenkins, of South Garfield avenue, entertained a large party of the little friends of their daughter, Miss Eva, at their residence Friday afternoon. The affair was in honor of the fifth anniversary of Miss Eva's birthday. Mrs. Jenkins was assisted by Miss Margaret Auhoff. During the afternoon recitations were given by Misses Martha George, Sarah and Jennie Thomas and Edith Morgan and Master Gwilym Davis. Masters Charles Thomas and Harry Jones sang solos. Other pleasant diversions were enjoyed. At six o'clock refreshments were served.

Those at the party were Misses Florence Jenkins, Sarah Ann Jones, May Edwards, Martha George, Pittsburg; Jennie Thomas, Birtley, of North Main; Thomas, Edith Morgan, Annie Jones, Gladys Davis, Margaret Auhoff, Masters Harry Jones, R. Davis, Gwilym Madcock, Harry Jenkins, Arthur Jenkins, John Reese, Charles Thomas, Gwilym Davis, Harry Jenkins and L. Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. William Farr, of Elizabeth street, Trip tract, tendered the little friends of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth, a party Saturday afternoon at their residence. The affair was in honor of her sixth birthday anniversary of the young miss. Mrs. Farr was assisted by Mrs. W. Barrett. Amusements suitable to the needs of the little folks were provided and at 5:30 o'clock refreshments were served.

The guests of Miss Farr were Misses Hilda Farr, Susan Fenton, Margaret Davis, Otty White, Helen Farr, Hatie Farrell, Marie Gerrity, Mary Price, Pearl Price, Audrey Jones, Bessie George, Edna May Whitney, Annie Gallagher, Margaret McDonough, Masters Eddie and Justin McDonough. Herbert O. Charles, Bennie White, John R. Farr, Jr., Albert Davis and William Farr, Jr.

FUNERALS ON THIS SIDE. The auditorium of the First Welsh Baptist church, on South Main avenue, was crowded Saturday afternoon by those who attended the funeral exercises held there for the late Edwin Reese, the inside foreman of the Bliss colliery, at Lee Mine, Pa., who died so suddenly last Thursday morning. In addition to the many friends and relatives from this city, were many from Lee Mine and Nanticoke, who accompanied the remains on the special train being here.

The remains were borne to the church from the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western station and placed at the head of the center aisle. Upon and around the casket were placed numerous floral tributes. In the auditorium were the members of Sibirian lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, who attended the funeral, and many Delaware, Lackawanna and Western mine officials. Upon the pulpit platform were seated Rev. Charles Jones, M. A., of Nanticoke; Rev. W. B. Thomas, of Pittston; Rev. H. H. Harris, Ph. D., of Taylor; and Rev. W. F. Davis, of North Scranton. The choir of the church here was augmented by several members of the Nanticoke Baptist church choir.

The services were opened with the singing of a hymn. Rev. Thomas read several passages of Scripture for the scriptural lesson and Rev. Davis followed in prayer. Rev. Jones preached a short funeral sermon from the theme: "The just do not die, but sleep." The main thought was character, as evidenced in a Christian. The concluding remarks were eulogistic of the deceased. Dr. Harris also spoke in a similar strain.

At the conclusion of the services the

THE ILLS OF WOMEN

And How Mrs. Pinkham Helps Overcome Them.

Mrs. MARY BOLLINGER, 1101 Marianna St., Chicago, Ill., to Mrs. Pinkham: "I have been troubled for the past two years with falling of the womb, leucorrhoea, pains over my body, sick headaches, backache, nervousness and weakness. I tried doctors and various remedies without relief. After taking two bottles of your Vegetable Compound, the relief I obtained was truly wonderful. I have now taken several more bottles of your famous medicine, and can say that I am entirely cured."

Mrs. HENRY DONA, No. 806 Findley St., Cincinnati, Ohio, to Mrs. Pinkham: "I am a long sufferer with chronic inflammation of the womb, pain in abdomen and bearing-down feeling. Was very nervous at times, and so weak I was hardly able to do anything. Was subject to headaches, also troubled with leucorrhoea. After doctoring for many months with different physicians, and getting no relief, I had given up all hope of being well again when I read of the great good Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was doing. I decided immediately to give it a trial. The result was simply past belief. After taking four bottles of Vegetable Compound and using three packages of Sanative Wash I can say I feel like a new woman. I deem it my duty to announce the fact to my fellow sufferers that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable remedies have entirely cured me of all my pains and suffering. I have her alone to thank for my recovery, for which I am grateful. May heaven bless her for the good work she is doing for our sex."

remains were viewed and then borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were Outside Foreman T. H. Carey and Assistant Inside Foreman J. T. Evans, of the Bliss colliery; Benjamin Jones and Wm. R. Jones, of Nanticoke; and A. H. Storrs, of the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western coal department; and Henry P. Davies, outside foreman of the central.

The funeral of the David Kann, who died Thursday morning, was held yesterday afternoon from the residence on Williams street at the Archbold. The attendance of friends was very large and Bald Eagle tribe, No. 102, Improved Order of Redmen, of which deceased was a member attended in a body.

Rev. A. W. Walker, pastor of the Primitive Methodist church at Archbold, conducted the service and preached a short funeral sermon. A quartette sang the hymn selections. At the conclusion of the services the remains were borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where interment was made. The pall-bearers were from the lodge and were George Getz, Charles Goff, George Beckhorn, W. Morgans, C. James and W. Fern.

RECKLESS STREET DRIVING. Two unknown men by their disregard for the ordinary rules of driving, and of other persons' property, wrecked a valuable surrey yesterday afternoon about 4:30 o'clock in front of the residence of R. J. Williams, 153 South Main avenue. Then, not waiting to ascertain the extent of the damage caused by their recklessness, they drove hurriedly away and escaped arrest.

The surrey, to which a horse was hitched, stood near the curb, out of traffic's way, and the horse was tied. The men drove up Main avenue in a heavy road buggy with team of horses attached. The occupants must have been asleep, for when the buggy crashed into the outside wheels of the other vehicle, they were both pitched out. Both men scrambled back into the buggy, but not before they had been fortunately for them, no one was near enough to recognize either. The thills of the surrey were broken from the front wheels.

MEMORIAL SERVICE. Arrangements are being made for the holding of memorial service at the Plymouth Congregational church for the late Mrs. J. H. Phillips. Private M'Cormack, of the Thirteenth regiment, and Edward Higgins, of Sport Hill, indulged in a passage at arms on Drinker street, Saturday night. The men were engaged in an argument as to the ability of the Thirteenth regiment boys to stand punishment, when an appeal was taken for force.

Private M'Cormack not only showed the bystanders that they could stand punishment unflinchingly, but also could deal out large chunks of it himself. When the men were separated, Higgins' face was badly bruised.

It was a well-played game and was witnessed by a large number of people. It was clearly noticed that the high school boys were the best team and would have won had they not been against a team nearly twice their weight. The feature of the game was a forty-five yard dash by Murray, of the Dunmore team, who eluded the tackles and made a touchdown during the first half. The game will probably be played over.

He was then appointed superintendent of the Boston Coal company, now the White Oak Archbold, which position he filled for eight years. In 1874 Mr. Lawrence was nominated and elected by the Labor Reform party as county

The Boys—Bob, how do you make such big sales? Bob—I give my customers a piece of Battle Ax!

It is no longer a secret that the quality of Battle Ax PLUG is different from that of any other chewing tobacco ever made. It stands to reason that it is better than any other chewing tobacco; or why does it sell five times more than any other brand? You can fool the eye—with color. You cannot fool the mouth with taste. Battle Ax tastes right—chews right—costs right and is "right." Remember the name when you buy again.
